PARISH NEWSLETTER 28TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, 14TH OCTOBER 2018

St Anne's I am in...#stannesimin

The Expo Day was a risk, will it work or not. Would it be helpful to the Parish? Would it be just another thing that we have tried and it failed?

What was great about last Sunday, was the way people gathered and talked to each other, and offered their services for the good of the parish if this is what Expo did, it was worth having this again and again and again. I loved the Sacred Music stall, I loved the way that RCIA was presented, I loved the Vincent De Paul as I walked around, there was just such an experience of what we are doing.

Well done, what is more I loved the Hash Tag, #stannesimin. Have you got the button. I am in St Anne's and I am working for the good of the Gospel.

Fr Brian sm

Parish Expo Being part of the parish expo and seeing it come to life on the day lifted my spirits and I feel truly joyful and grateful for the here and now. I feel hopeful for the future with what I saw before me and as I renewed my commitment to the pastoral council and parish life, I saw how much we could possibly be.

My thanks for everyone who created a stand, prepared and served food. Picked up rubbish, put a table in place and learnt something they didn't know before.

The success for the day I felt was summed up by a person telling me, "The burden of the day was not on one person or group's shoulders. Everyone did their bit. It just fitted together and just worked" Well Done people of St Anne's

The full 2018 Parish priest, finance and pastoral parish reports can be found on https:// manurewacatholic.org.nz/ under their perceptive areas.

If you have any questions about the reports or anything in general, you can send an email to:
stannesppc@gmail.com or see a member of the finance committee or PPC.

Lastly. Well done. Enjoy it. If we were looking for visibility for the PPC, we got it. The same goes for the finance committee.

Between the priests, PPC and finance, what I felt we achieved was.....trust. We're going to need it. The real hard yards are ahead.
