YOU WILL NEVER KNOW!

You will have heard the story about the man walking along a beach covered with stranded starfish and coming across a little boy picking up one by one and taking them to the water and throwing them back into the sea.

"You must be crazy," he said to the boy. "there are thousands of them. You can't possibly make a difference."

The boy replied, as he tossed another one back into the water. "It sure made a difference to that one."

It's a bit like that with us. There are so many good things that we could do to show we are living the Christian life that the enormity of the task can seem overwhelming and we end up doing nothing.

Why not do the "starfish thing" ?

Do little things each day and strive to make a habit of doing little things.

Like, going out of your way to help someone, or spending time with or being pleasant to someone you don't particularly like or listening to the local boring know it all, or biting your tongue and not putting someone down, or affirming or complimenting someone on what they have done or smiling at someone on the street. Just little things...

BUT little things can make a big difference in someone else's life and most times, You will never know. But they will, like the starfish.

Have a great week making a difference and bringing alive the Gospel of JESUS!

Fr Kev Murphy SM.
