126 Russell Rd, Manurewa, Auckland 2102
Est. 1947

Sunday 7th May 2023 | Fifth Sunday of Easter - Year A | Issue #15

New Easter Catholics 2023 Welcome!

Standing: Therese Lautua, Langi Nunan, Anna Kiely, Peter Teli, Amy Verissimo, ..., Monty Pereira, Diana, Peter McAfee, Daryl Vitale Leilua & Keke, Rebecca Mayers & little Edmund, (Easter Candle) Ruben Iuvale, Tahnya Tagilala, Bridget Watson, Winika Iuvale, Lorraine Va'a, Andrew Malele, Lola-Sophia Teina, Lupe, Motiana Pasa
Kneeling: Omree Kolo, Novro Kolo.

At last, here's a picture of the RCIA for 2023. Welcome to the six Newly Baptised (Monty, Daryl, Rebecca and Edmund, Winika, Ruben) and the seven Newly Received into the Church (Peter, Tahnya, Lorraine, Lola-Sophia, Motiana, Novro and Onree).

They made this commitment on Easter Saturday Night at a joyous moment in the Vigil. This photo was taken shortly after. We hope that you feel at home here at St Anne's. That's one of the reasons why we're printing this picture here – so that the regulars and long time parishioners can recognize you and say "hi".

Also pictured here are sponsors, partners, catechists and leaders of the RCIA. Congratulations and thanks to you all too!

~ Fr Peter McAfee

God Bless!

Fr Peter McAfee SM,
Parish Priest.

Renewal Project Update

The Finance Committee has set up a fundraising sub-committee for our Renewal Project and all official fundraising will now be through this committee.

The immediate focus will be on small and regular, and the fundraising starts with a 'quickfire' raffle of a $100 Prezzy Card, 100 tickets/$5 a ticket, tickets go on sale at the 5pm Mass Sunday 7 May and at each Sunday Mass through to 10am Mass Sunday 14 May, Mothers Day, when it will be drawn.

Flower arrangements will also be on sale at all Sunday Masses for Mothers Day, 13/14 May, so bring some cash, say it with flowers to make Mothers Day extra special and help raise funds for our new church!

A member of the committee will speak at all Sunday Masses this weekend to explain further.

Parish Council chairwoman Rachel Barrett welcomed all to the celebrations, and deputy mayor Mrs Norma Lewis spoke warmly of the place of St Anne's in the community.

The multi-cultural composition of the parish was evident by the involvement of the Filipino community, the Samoan community and a powhiri extended to visitors from the Māori community of St Anne's.

A special surprise was the presentation of a Papal Honour to Martha van der Voorn for faithful service to the church.

The Papal medal Benemeranti was presented to Martha in gratitude by Bishop Patrick Dunn. Mrs Barrett outlined Martha's involvement over the years, providing assistance to new refugee settlers, Justice and Peace issues, Catholic Representation on Board of Friendship House, church floral arrangements for more than 20 years, Pastoral Council member and Regional Council representative being just a few of the many ways in which Martha has served her parish and the community. An afternoon of singing and dancing involving the various ethnic communities completed the celebrations... to be continued...

WHY IS THE NEW BANK ACCOUNT TAKING SO LONG?

The Auckland Diocese is one of the banks oldest customers and we have many specific needs. We are like no other customer the bank has

It's taking a long time to set up because we want the impact to be as low as possible for our parishioners. Until then, keep using 02-0100-0120974-008 - this account is still very safe and secure.

Donation Receipts

All donation receipts have been issued and are ready to either be picked up from the Atrium or if you have opted to receive via Email, check your inbox.
