Fifth Sunday of Lent

THERE IS NO LOVE WITHOUT COST Jn 12, 20 --33

"Unless a grain of wheat falls into the ground and dies, it remains unfruitful, but if it dies it bears much fruit".

Very provocative! Jesus speaks clearly. One cannot beget life without giving one's own life.

You cannot make others live if you are not willing to "give your life" for them. Life is the fruit of love, and it springs forth if we know to give ourselves.

There is the suffering that we can suppress and there is the inevitable suffering that we cannot eliminate. There is also the suffering, the fruit of our selfishness and injustices wrought on people.

It is normal for us to turn away from pain, to seek to avoid it. But there is a suffering that is necessary in life because it is the price we pay to alleviate it in our world.

It is clear that in life we could spare ourselves a lot of suffering, bitterness and heartache by closing our eyes to the suffering of others.

But to do so means that we stop loving.

When one loves and lives life intensely, one cannot live indifferent to the great or small suffering of others. The one who loves becomes vulnerable. Loving others includes suffering compassionate solidarity in pain. There is no suffering that can be alien to us. This painful solidarity frees and saves us as human beings. This is what we discover in the Crucified Jesus: he saves those who share the pain and are in solidarity with those who suffer.

Week 5 - Lujan Home for Girls, Papua New Guinea

LUJAN HOME FOR GIRLS, PAPUA NEW GUINEA

Caritas-Aotearoa supports the Lujan Home for Girls in Vanimo, Papua New Guinea. This refuge home is run by a religious order, the Sister Servants of the Lord and the Virgin Matará. They look after around 30 girls as young as two years old. They operate Lujan Home like a family, caring for the girls like they are their own. Malnutrition is a significant issue in Papua New Guinea, so the Home provides the girls with a nutritionally balanced and varied diet and teaches the girls about nutrition and cooking so that they can bring these skills back to their families and communities when they leave the Lujan. As a result of their time at Lujan Home, the girls' future appears promising and and full of opportunities, as they are supported and empowered to follow their dreams and lead a Christian life of purpose and dignity.

Nga Michi Nui,
Fr Tony O'Connor SM,
Parish Priest.
