126 Russell Rd, Manurewa, Auckland 2102
Est. 1947

Sunday 24th March 2024 | Palm Sunday - Year B | Issue #9

Palm Sunday

Commemorates Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem, where he was welcomed by crowds of people who waved palm branches and spread their cloaks on the ground before him.

His riding a donkey into Jerusalem is a model of humility and selfishness and fulfils the Old Testament prophecy about the coming of a righteous king on a donkey. Donkeys are symbols of humbleness, and by choosing one instead of a horse, Jesus shows his humility.

Hypocrisy is when we can't freely be at peace with others, yet we can carry green palm leaves to church to commemorate "Palm Sunday!"

Lets throw those palm leaves somewhere; and lay our life down for someone to walk on because the message of Palm Sunday is humility, sacrifice and faith.

Week 6 - Farming resilience in Cambodia

DEVELOPMENT PARTNERSHIP IN ACTION, CAMBODIA

Our partnership with Development Partnership in Action (DPA) in Cambodia prioritises the wellbeing, productive livelihoods, and climate resilience of Khmer Loeu people in remote locations. Thousands of indigenous farmers and their families have benefited from agricultural training and support protecting their customary land. The Phea family live in Mondulkiri province in Cambodia. They are reliant on growing rice for both their income and food. In 2020, they joined a local rice growing co-operative that is by our partner, DPA, and this transformed their lives. They have learnt new sustainable ways of growing organic rice and have been enabled to share information, skills and produce with other community members.

In Our Parish

On behalf of the parish of St Annes I would like to record our thanks to Anne Miliken in a special way, for the initiative she took and the many dedicated hours she spent so that the St Patrick's night Fundraiser was in the first place such a good fun ("craic" irish) and a night enjoyed by all. It was a great contribution to the Renewal Fund ($5,284.00).

To Anne especially and to all who worked with her, including the band and the dancers, and to all who enjoyed .

"May your troubles be less, and your blessings be more, and nothing but happiness come through your door."

Fr Tony
